

Mission Capital Arranges $31.4M in Financing for Multifamily Development in Indianapolis

October 14th, 2014

INDIANAPOLIS — Mission Capital Advisors' debt and equity finance group has arranged $31.4 million in construction financing for a 215-unit multifamily complex in Indianapolis. The financing comprised $7.1 million of institutional joint venture equity and a $24.3 million construction loan for the 225,000-square-foot project. A local sponsor is developing the project, which is located at 600 E. Michigan St. The project will comprise two, four-story multifamily structures around a landscaped courtyard with a resort-style pool, constructed over one level of subterranean parking. Brad Lyons, Ari Hirt and Steven Buchwald of Mission Capital Advisors represented the sponsor in arranging the financing with PNC Bank.
