

MORTGAGE OBSERVER WEEKLY

The Insider's Weekly Guide to the Commercial Mortgage Industry

September 20, 2013

Work Force

Mission Capital Advisors is continuing to grow its debt and equity finance group with the addition of Jonathan More, who has joined as a director.

He'll be responsible for originating, structuring and underwriting commercial real estate transactions across the country. He joins from Ackman-Ziff, where he spent three years, most recently specializing in office, retail and residential financing and loan sale advisory services.

"The aggressive expansion of our debt and equity finance group continues to be well-supported by our ability to attract the industry's top talent, whose skills sets are strongly aligned with the needs of our clients," said Mission Principal David Tobin. "We are confident that Jonathan's deep market knowledge and industry relationships, as well as his creative and diligent service approach, will contribute to his role as a valuable member of our team."